

Art2Art at Abingdon

An exciting exhibition opportunity for visual artists in high school

See Mother of Invention by James Lecesne at Abingdon Theatre Company & create art inspired by the show

Student Artist Lily P. presenting her painting at Art2Art 2015 Gallery Opening at Abingdon Theatre Company

- Are you a teen artist looking to expand your artistic horizons?
- Are you interested in meeting fellow teen artists from across the city?
- Are you looking for a new and different source of artistic inspiration?

Art2Art is a unique opportunity for teen visual artists to experience and draw creativity from a theater piece as it develops. Through Art2Art, teens meet fellow teen artists, attend a reading of a play, experience a live performance, meet with members of the creative team (director, designers, etc.), and more. Teens then create a piece of art in response to the play and their art is displayed in the theater's lobby.

OPEN TO ANYONE IN HIGH SCHOOL.

SCHEDULE FOR Art2Art at Abingdon 2017:

1. Thursday, January 19 from 4:30-6:30pm

Group reading of the play Mother of Invention
@ Abingdon Theatre Company

2. Tuesday, January 31 from 6:30-9:30pm

Attend performance & meet with creative team
@ Abingdon Theatre Company

students then work on art independently

3. Wednesday, February 8 by 6pm

Artwork submissions due @ ArtsConnection

4. Sunday, February 12 @ 1pm

Gallery Opening @ Abingdon Theatre Company

Abingdon Theatre Company - 312 West 36th Street OR
ArtsConnection - 520 8th Avenue Suite 321

Student Artist Dante S. presenting his photograph at Art2Art 2016 Gallery Opening at Abingdon Theatre Company

Facebook.com/teens.artsconnection

Twitter: @teens_ac

Instagram: @teens.artsconnection

teens.artsconnection.org

Questions? Want to get involved?

Applications due Monday, January 5!

Visit teens.artsconnection.org/art2art to access our brief application.

Email Allison Whorton, High 5 Program Manager, at WhortonA@artsconnection.org or call 212-302-7433 x 462 with any questions.